We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural security measures to safeguard confidential client information.

Cyber Security: Internal policies and procedures are in place to address cyber security. A copy of this policy is available upon request.

Succession Planning: In the event that the owner of TWA would retire, become incapacitated, or perish unexpectedly, your information would be disclosed to an unaffiliated third party for the purposes of facilitating a business succession plan. A change in control of ownership of TWA would require your consent, as dictated by your signed agreement with TWA, in order to continue providing services to you.

Artificial Intelligence: We may utilize artificial intelligence (AI) tools internally to assist in summarizing and organizing notes from client meetings to enhance record-keeping and efficiency. These AI tools do not replace human oversight, and all notes are reviewed for accuracy and compliance with regulatory standards. Client data processed through AI remains confidential, securely stored, and is not shared with third parties unless required by law. AI is not used to make investment decisions or communicate directly with clients. Additionally, we conduct thorough due diligence upfront and ongoing assessments of our AI tools' privacy and cybersecurity protocols to ensure they meet the highest standards of security and confidentiality. If you have any questions or wish to opt out of AI-assisted notetaking, please contact Scott Marn.

Your Right to Opt Out: Federal privacy laws give you the right to restrict us from sharing your personal financial information. These laws balance your right to privacy with TWA's need to provide information for normal business purposes. You have the right to opt out of sharing certain information with affiliated and unaffiliated companies of our firm. Choosing to restrict the sharing of your personal financial information will not apply to (1) your information that we may share with companies that help promote and market our own products or products offered under a joint agreement with another company; (2) records of your transactions—such as your loan payments, credit card or debit card purchases, and checking and savings account statements—to firms that provide data processing and mailing services for our firm; (3) information about you in response to a court order; and (4) your payment history on loans and credit cards to credit bureaus. If you opt out, you limit the extent to which TWA can provide your personal financial information to non-affiliated companies. If you wish to exercise your right to opt out, please contact TimeWealth Advisors, Inc. at (440) 299-7572.
